Contacting Life Coaches

Due to life coaches work schedule with other children and parents they are not often available by telephone, and they cannot answer the phone when they are with a client. When life coaches are not available, their telephone is answered by a voice mail that they monitor frequently.

The life coach will make every effort to return your call within 24 hours, with the exception of weekends and holidays. If you are difficult to reach, let the life coach know on your messages of the best time to call you.

You may also send an e-mail to your life coach at monitomychild@gmail.com or send a text message to 786-269-1080, or you may call the office at 305 688-2065. Keep in mind our staff are usually in the field working with our clients. We don't spend a lot of time in the office. Life coaches do not normally return calls after 7 PM, on weekends or during holiday. Life coaches normally turn their phone off during these times. However, if you have the plan, and your child is arrested, you will receive this service.
